Numb. 4103.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 17. 1714.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 14.

Leipsick, December 5.

WE have Letters from Petersburg of the 12th past, which bring, that the Czar has named an Ambassador extraordinary who is to depart very soon for London, to Compliment the King of Great-Britain upon his Accession to the Throne. These Letters add, that his Czarian Majesty had given Orders to the General of his Troops in Finland to march and joyn those who are in the northern Provinces of Sweden; and that he is making great Preparations for another Expedition, wherein the 25000 Russians who are upon the Frontier of Lithuania will be employed.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 22.

Vienna, Dec. 8. Yesterday the Princess Maria Elizabetha of Holstein was made Abbess of Queidlinburg. Some Polachians and Cossacks of Quality are come to this City along with the Swedes from Turkey, among whom is a Sister's Son of the late General Mazeppa, who followed the King of Sweden, to obtain repayment of a great Sum of Money disbursed by him and his Family for his Swedish Majesty. As the Swedish Troops March but slowly, 'tis supposed they will spend three Months in their Journey from Transylvania to Deux-Ponts. The Swedish Chancellor Baron Muller is forced to keep his Chamber by a Defluxion upon his Eyes, but 'tis hoped he will soon be well enough to enter into Conference with the Imperial and British Ministers, which last have in the mean time spoken with the Swedish Resident Steinhock. General Stanhope proposes to depart hence about Tuesday or Wednesday next. We understand that the King of Sweden cannot resolve yet to give the Emperour the Title of Catholick King.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 21.

Hamburg, Dec. 14. The King of Sweden has conferred Titles of Nobility upon the City of Straelsund, and has granted the Burghers an exemption from their Excises for 10 Years. 'Tis thought the King of Denmark will come suddenly into Holstein. His Majesty has sent General Dewitz to the Congress at Brunswick who set out accordingly from Copenhagen the 7th Instant, and will be followed by M. Holsten. The Danish Troops have taken Possession of the Dutchy of Eutin, and 30 Battallions of those Forces are ordered to hold themselves in a readiness to march upon the first Orders.

Brussels, Dec. 17. The Houshold-Goods which the Elector of Bavaria left behind him when he retired after the Battle of Ramellies are upon Sale, except the very fine Glasses which will be sent to Bavaria. 'Tis not yet known whether the Money they produce will be employed in paying his Debts.

Hague, Dec. 18. 'In the Choice of M. Duyvenwoorde for Ambassador to his Britanick Majesty, 17 of the Cities voted for him, but the Nobility and the City of Amsterdam were for the Competitor who stood against him. Couriers are 'going and returning daily between this Place and 'Antwerp, and we are more and more confirmed 'in our good Opinion of Success in the Barrier 'Treaty. The provisional Treaty of Commerce 'between this State and the Spanish Netherlands is 'in a manner regulated, and the Emperour seems 'inclinable to give up Venlo and Stevenswaert, 'with a good part of the upper Quarter of Gelderland, to the States in full Propriety, reserving to himself the Liberty of putting a Garrison into Ruremond. Besides which his Imperial 'Majesty has added Ypres and Furnes to the Cities 'of Namur, Tournay, and Menin, in all which Places 'the States are to keep Garrisons. Upon this Foot 'we are perswaded the States will agree that the 'Imperial Troops shall immediately take intire 'Possession of the Dutchies of Luxemburg and 'Limburg. With respect to the Evacuation of the 'Town of Huy and the Citadel of Liege, the 'States remain unresolved, having the Sentiments 'of the King of France and the Elector of Cologn under Consideration. The Opinion of the 'former is, that the States may without Difficulty consent to it, and comply with the 'Court of Vienna for an Equivalent on the Part 'of his Imperial Majesty; but the Elector of 'Cologn declares, that he should rather choose to 'let those two Places be garrisoned by Dutch 'Troops than see the Fortifications of them demolished. And for the Town of Bonne, his 'Electoral Highness would rather have the Fortifications of that Place demolished than have 'them kept up upon Conditions so Dishonourable 'as are agreed upon in the Treaty of Baden. [Note, By the 15th Article of that Treaty it is agreed, that the Elector of Cologn shall put no Garrison into Bonne in time of Peace, but the Guard of the Place shall be left to the Burghery; and for those Guards that may be necessary for the Person and Episcopal Palace, an Agreement shall be made for them with the Emperour and Empire; but in time of War or danger of a War approaching, his Imperial Majesty and the Empire may put into that Town as many Troops as the reason of War demands, and conformably to the Laws and Constitutions of the Empire.] 'Tis said the Elector of Bavaria has also written a Letter, wherein he shews a Discontent at what has been concluded in that Treaty concerning him. The Sieur Petkum, Resident of Holstein Gottorp, has delivered in a Memorial, demanding of the States the payment of the Expence of divers Journeys which he made to France during the last War and in the time the Treaty of Gertruydenberg was depending; but he has received no other Answer than that his Memorial is referred to the Committee established for such sort of Affairs. 'The States Ambassador at Constantinople writes in his Letter of the first of November, that he 'has learnt from a very good Hand, that the Porte 'has an Intention to declare War in the Spring 'against the Venetians, and to invade the Morea, 'and they cover their Design by giving way to 'the Reports that their Intention is against Malta. But this Ambassador talks nothing of the 'Turks projecting a War against Pologn, which 'is a Speculation the Gazettes are very full of.

From the Gazette a la Main.

Paris, Dec. 22. The write from Strasburg the 12th Instant, that the Evacuation of the Places along the Rhine continues suspended, till the Bavarian Troops are at hand to enter that Electorate. They are shortly expected, and Monsr. Du Bourg has even had a Conference with one of the Emperor's Commissaries, about their Passage. The Garrison of Landau has been reinforced with 2 Regiments; so that it is now very numerous, and burdensome to the Inhabitants. They are at work on new Fortifications there, and storing the Magazines with all sorts of Ammunition. The Elector of Bavaria went and spent the last Week at Chantilly, with the Duke of Orleans; and 'tis said he will be going for his own Electorate the beginning of next Month. The Bavarian Troops, to the Number of 9000 Men, have passed the Rhine; and a great Quantity of Champagne and Burgundy is arrived at Munich, for the Use of his Electoral Highness. We have Advice, that the Troops of the Elector of Cologn, who are but few in Number, have entered Liege, and all the other Places of that Bishoprick. It is said, that that Elector, who was to have set out the 1st Instant, is detained by the Gout. The Capitation is to be paid one Year more. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is going to begin his Exercises at Versailles. The Dutchess of Orleans was brought to Bed on Tuesday day last of a Princess. We have Advice of the Queen of Spain's Arrival at Pampeluna.
